THE WHITE PINE CLOQUET HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

By the time this book is distributed, the senior class will have left the halls of CHS forever, and the 1966-67 school year will be only a small part of the history of Cloquet High School. It is the hope of the yearbook staff, however, that their year can at least partially be relived whenever a senior or underclassman thumbs through the pages of this book. The big events of the year-the Sno-Ball, the class play, the prom, and commencement night-will still be fresh in the mind of every senior. But somewhere in this book there might be a picture that revives some small, but special moment to a certain person, a special moment that might otherwise have been forgotten. It is these "little things" that go into making a particular year unique, whether it be your freshman year or senior year. So go ahead-search through the 178 pages of this book looking for your special pictures. Remember, though, the picture can only capture the event-you supply the memory and the mood.

Dedication

The Class of 1967 is pleased and proud to dedicate its edition of the White Pine to Mr. Palmer Peterson.

To graduate from CHS without having had Mr. Peterson as a teacher is missing one of the finest experiences our school has to offer. A truly dedicated teacher adds not only to our actual learning, but to our interest in the subject. Mr. Peterson's contributions to our education have been in chemistry and physical science. When looking back on our years at CHS, we will remember his patience and special sense of humor which made the classroom atmosphere a most enjoyable one. Equations, gas laws, lab experiments, breakage fees, occasional water fights, "Squirrely Buggers", and "Beasts" will certainly be brought to mind. Who will ever forget the notorious tests? In teaching, he has given generously of his knowledge and effort to our class and many other students preceding us.

Because he holds a special place with us, we hope this dedication will serve as an expression of our respect and affection for an invaluable member of the faculty, Mr. Peterson.

ADMINISTRATION—FACULTY

The Board of Education

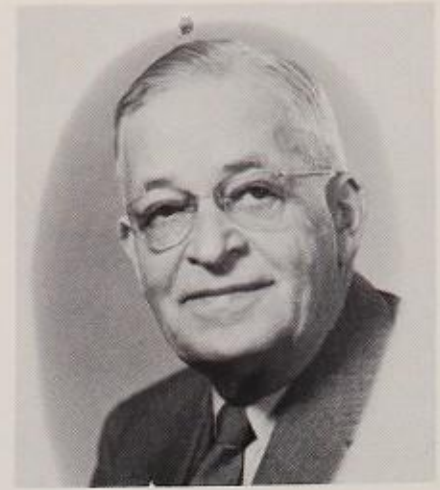

As representatives of the citizens of our community, our school board does much to further the educational opportunities of Cloquet public schools. It is these six men who supervise the entire school system.

Top on their agenda again this year was the new school. Additional duties included the purchasing of new textbooks and the hiring of new teachers.

Although the board is relatively unknown among the students, their interest and concern in education is reflected in our school.

We are sure Mr. Gessner does the best job possible and thank him for all his efforts.

Through his presence at school and athletic activities, Mr. Strommer is an invaluable factor in contributing to school spirit and team support.

Administrative Assistants

Assistant Superintendent

OLIVER E. HOYUM
B.S., M.A., University of Minnesota

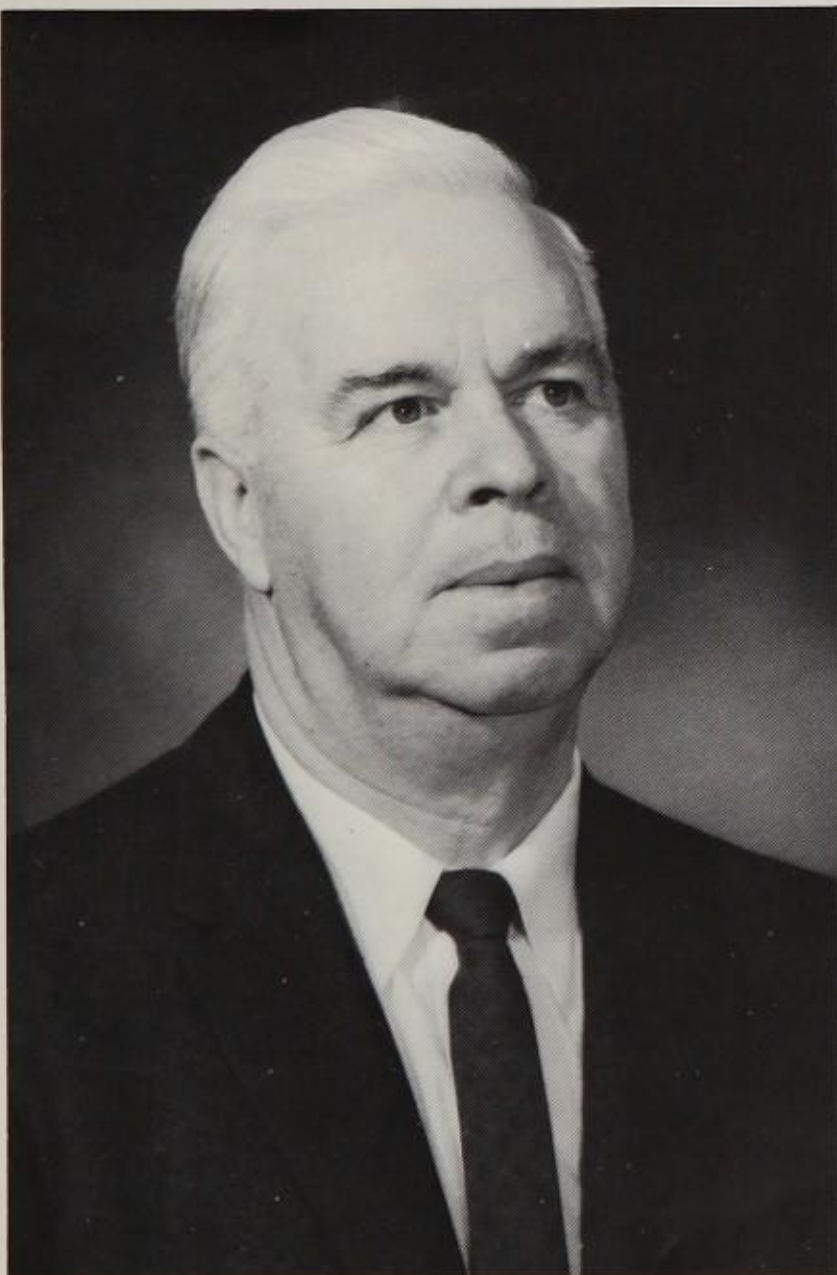

As administrative assistant, Mr. Hoyum has a great variety of responsibilities. Mr. Weiss has jurisdiction over the Jefferson Junior High and the junior high classes in the high school. In addition to planning convocations for junior high students, he has charge of the junior high student council and the hall cadets. Cooks and Custodians Lend A Helping Hand

Contribution and service are the two words synonymous with the work of the custodians and cooks at Cloquet High School. Their tasks are indispensable to the smooth running of our school system. Their work may seem unappreciated by the students, but this is far from the truth. They are an invaluable part of our life at C.H.S. and they are not taken lightly for their services.

Islands Welcome Sophomores

By popular vote, the sophomores chose to "Go Hawaiian" for their class party on November 17. Headed by the class officers, the sophomores worked together to make their first class party a success. The program committee scheduled the entertainment, which included an appropriate skit by a group of Hula dancers and live music by a Superior band.

It was a wild night, but the class of '69 all agreed that they had a great time at their first class party.

Ushers Host School Functions

The redcoats are coming!!! The redcoats are coming??? No, they are the 1967 members of the Hospitality Club. Decked in their new red blazers, white sweaters, and dark skirts, these friendly girls are of service to the school in many ways. They usher people to their seats, collect tickets, and hand out programs at many of the Cloquet High School sponsored events. The members serve as hostesses at basketball games, concerts, plays, parent-teacher conferences, speech meets, and various other events.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson served as advisor to the Hospitality Club members.

Student Council—Energy and Accomplishment

OFFICERS: Pam Stillwell, Cindee Johnson, Miss Setnes, Marianne Heine, Del Prevost, LaVonna Hennum, Mary Kay Hovanec, Bob Angst

The C.H.S. Student Council, under the guidance of Mr. Strommer, strayed from tradition this year and was a great success. Starting the year with a balanced budget of nothing, the Council built up funds from the noon hour concession stand to purchase new blazers for the Hospitality Club, buy a school flag to represent the school in athletic games, and sponsor a Student Council Scholarship. New activities created were the "Fun Night" and the Viet Nam Service project.

Tradition did leave its trace though, as "Twirp Week" went off with a bang, and Sno-Day was topped off by a sock hop. Climaxing the Patriotic Week was the Patriotic Convocation which featured a WDSM inside-view movie of Viet Nam. The annual Christmas program and American Field Service program created enthusiasm and interest in the student body.

The Student Council, truly a built-in pillar at C.H.S., did more than its part to make the 1967 school year a successful one.

Smiles Sparkle on Sno-Day

Sno-Day 1967, sponsored by the student council, was held on March 4. Snow sculptures were designed and constructed by each class. The highlight of the day's activities was the broomball games held at Washington School. Later that evening, a sock hop was danced to the sounds of the Tomorrow's Children in wildly-decorated socks. Prizes were given for the best-decorated socks.

Thirty-five new members were selected for induction into the National Honor Society on Friday, May 12. To receive this high honor, a student must be in the upper twenty-five percent of his class scholastically. He is then judged on the qualities of character, service, leadership, and scholastic ability. Fifteen percent of those chosen may be seniors and five per cent may be juniors.

At the convocation the thirteen seniors who were inducted as juniors last year, conducted the ceremony before both students and parents. Jim Minkkinen, Master of Ceremonies, introduced the speakers: Chris Hella, qualifications of membership; Marilyn Jensen, scholarship; Jacque Anderson, service; Sue Johnson, character; and Cindee Johnson, leadership. Faith Spurlin sang a vocal solo, followed by the presentation of pins and scrolls by other senior members. To conclude the program, the oath was administered.

A Bigger and Better Pine Needle

The Pine Needle appeared nine times during the 1966-67 school year, under the direction of Cindee Johnson, editor, and George Gillespie, advisor. The new expanded newspaper allowed more thorough coverage of school news. Coverage included factual reporting of school events, editorial features, columns, sport features, and in depth feature stories.

The staff of over thirty included seniors, juniors, and sophomores, who worked as reporters, columnists, and typists. Several seniors also served in the Pine Needle coat check at each home basketball game.

Journalists from both the White Pine and the Pine Needle staffs attended workshops at St. Cloud and Bemidji in September and the Minnesota High School Press Convention on the campus of the University of Minnesota in February.

Nine seniors were honored as members of the Pine Needle Hall of Fame during the year. These seniors, who were chosen for scholastic, leadership, athletic, and service qualities, included: Marianne Heine, Jim Minkinen, Marilyn Jensen, Mark Rosen, Pam Stillwell, Jamie Thomson, Sue Johnson, Gordie Ahlgren, and Cindee Johnson.

White Pine

EDITOR: Kathleen Walsh

The White Pine represents more than the 1967 school year - it represents the various members of the class themselves, whose numerous talents and efforts made the 1967 White Pine possible. It took writers, artists, typists, people with imagination, people with perseverance and ambition, and loyal friends to make this book the great book it is.

Advisor George Gillespie and editor Kathy Walsh headed this year's yearbook staff. Jacque Anderson, advertising manager and Sue Johnson, business manager, contributed an enormous amount of time and service. For the other staff members, producing a yearbook meant spending extra hours in room 210 after school, on weekends, and during holidays. It is impossible to estimate correctly the long hours spent on writing stories and headlines that are "different", captions that are funny or appropriate, senior sayings that "fit", and identifying the faces no one's ever seen before.

There were good days and bad days, accomplishments and failures, sounds of laughter and the silence of despair. The work was hard and rewards were few, but it was worth it.

The Mixed and Girls' Choirs filled the choir room with sounds of singing and "joyful noise" in 1966-67. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Schroeder, the Mixed Choir added Christmas cheer at the concert with the traditional number, "Twas the Night Before Christmas." The Girls' Choir, directed by Mrs. Joseph, sang the carol, "The Little Drummer Boy." The Madrigals again traveled the area presenting concerts to various clubs and organizations during the Christmas season. During Christmas vacation they made an appearance on the Dottie Becker TV program.

At the pop concert in February, the Mixed Choir featured a medley of songs from "South Pacific." The Girls' Choir presented a unique performance with, among other numbers, the "Three Round Frolic."

During the spring, another concert was held with the Mixed Choir presenting "Alleluia" and the Girls' Choir singing "Let There Be Peace On Earth." The Madrigals and Faith Spurlin won A ratings at the District and State-Regional music contest during the spring.

Officers of the Girls' Choir were Mary Hovanec-President, Julie Jenski-Secretary, and Peggy Antus-librarian. Curt Gullickson, Pam Stillwell, and Cheryl MacConnachie were president, secretary, and librarian of the Mixed Choir. Section leaders were Faith Spurlin-sopranos, Pam Stillwell-altos, Paul Beltt-tenors, and Charlin Diver-basses.

Active Year for String Ensemble Members

STRING ENSEMBLE MEMBERS: Marianne Heine, Gail Mills, Jerilyn Oswald, Faith Spurlin, Marilyn Jensen, and Dave Obst.

It is especially significant this year to comment on the service rendered to the community by the String Ensemble; all the members excluding Jerilyn, are seniors that have remained together as a musical group for the past four years. They provide dinner music for banquets and entertainment for the Senior Citizens, annual co-op meeting, and other community groups throughout the year. The free meals, the mistakes, "Blue Moon", and "Romantic Rhapsody," the evenings sacrificed, the appreciative audiences, were all part of the experience.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA MEMBERS: Kathy Wirtanen, Sue Johnson, Linda Huseby, June Palm, and Kathy Laminen.

Seniors Mickey Levinski, Clayton Riihiluoma Gail Mills, Marilyn Jensen, and Janet Brendiar.

Under the direction of Mr. Niemi, the orchestra had a successful year and presented some of the best concerts ever. The annual Pop Concert in February and the Spring Concert in May featured popular tunes, such as "Andalucia" and "Carousel." The exchange concert in Hibbing was our reward for our hard work. It meant a day out of school, a long bus ride, and a memorable experience. The orchestra made its final appearance in following its tradition of playing at the graduation exercises.

The String Ensemble was active throughout the year performing for banquets and various local groups. Food served at the banquets seemed to be the big attraction so the ensemble ended its year with a banquet of its own.

Many of the orchestra members participated in groups outside of school. Eleven members attended the String Clinic held at UMD and five students were in the Junior Symphony.

The hard work of both students and Mr. Niemi meant "A" ratings for quite a few at the regional music contest: the string quartet-Marilyn Jensen, Sandra Fish, Faith Spurlin, and Dave Obst; the violin duet-Lynette Joseph and Sandra Fish; another string quartet-Lynette Joseph, Chuck Ferguson, Sue Riihiluoma, and Jeannie Riihiluoma; the piano trio-Marilyn Jensen, Dave Obst, and Liza Hella; and the cello solo by Dave Obst. At the state level "A" ratings were again received by the piano trio and cellist, Dave Obst.

Elected as officers for the year were: Marianne Heine, President; Marilyn Jensen, Secretary; and Faith Spurlin, Treasurer.

The seniors are grateful to Mr. Niemi for the fine job he did with us not only this year but in the past years, too.

at State Fair

The versatile Cloquet High School Band began an outstanding year by making a trip to the state fair on September 1. After presenting two performances, the band was given a plaque for its efforts.

A winter concert was presented to the student body in mid-January. Some of the numbers played included the "Kingston Trio Overture" and "Pachinko". Joyce Roy exhibited her typing skills in a solo in the "Type-writer".

"The Sound of Music" was the musical theme for this year's basketball show performed for the first time in the Duluth Arena-Auditorium.

April 21 saw the most unusual and exciting Spring Pop Concert ever presented. "Bandasia" featured the graduating seniors to the melody of "When the Saints Go Marching In." The program included such contemporary music as "Dr. Zhivago," and "Lil' Abner," a solo by Anita Stahl, a clarinet trio, a flute quartet, and two numbers by the stage band. Decorations and refreshments were also presented to the audience for the first time. It was at this concert that Anita Stahl received the Arion Award.

Talented band members participated in the District Band Contest. At this contest, the band had the largest number ever to receive "A" ratings. They included: solos by Kathy Lamminen, Kathy Wirtanen, Eddie Dupont, Steve Johnson, Linda Huseby, LeAnn Weatherson, Kay Blomster, Anita Stahl, a clarinet quartet, flute and a quartet. The flute quartet, Louise Setterquist, Kathy Wirtanen, Steve Johnson, and Anita Stahl received "A" ratings at the State Band Contest.

Majorettes Dazzle the Crowds

With precision tossing and twirling, this year's majorettes added pep and sparkle to our high-stepping band.

Under the leadership of head majorette Cherylann Boyer and the supervision of Miss Monette Steinhau, the majorettes performed at a football game, basketball game, homecoming, and the district tournament.

Looking sharp in their new gold and white uniforms, they twirled to such numbers as "Alley Cat," "Independencia," "Frosty the Snowman," and a medley from "The Sound of Music."

Always colorful and smiling, the majorettes also led the band in the Fourth of July and Labor Day parades.

This year's majorettes were: Kathy Klemovich, JoAnn Bruley, and Beth Johnson.

The Audio-Visual Club is a vital organization often taken for granted at CHS. The members of this group give up much of their time to operate the movie projectors, opaque projectors, film splicers, tape recorders and other such equipment around the school. They help during convocations, class plays, and school events.

Mr. Henry Melancon, advisor for the club, directs the boys in the operation of the various machines. He also repairs the equipment, orders the films, and services the grade schools.

C.H.S. Reporters

Saturday mornings proved to be an active part of the year for CLOQUET HIGH SCHOOL REPORTERS.

Under the direction of Mr. Buytaert, nine students reported the school news, sports, and featured interviews for the radio audience. Every Saturday at 11:00 a.m. the alternating groups conducted their radio program on the local radio station. School news was the most prominent part of the program with records intermingled throughout the half hour.

The two groups consisted of Chris Hella, Kathy Laminen, Debbie Stewart, and Gary Carlson - Team I; and LeAnn Weatherson, Jessie Lange, Renee Rostvold and Paul Carlson - Team II. Sue Oswald was the alternate. School reporting held its own in the class year 1967 at C.H.S.

Spanish Influence

This year, as in the past, the Spanish Club has promoted a foreign influence in their activities. To raise money they sponsored a dance and sold ice cream bars.

During the Christmas Season, they anonymously gave a gift of mittens and sweaters to a Cloquet family. In January the club sponsored a trip to Telemark. On February 23, a joint German-Spanish Club banquet was held at the Zion Lutheran Church. After the meal, a program was presented of both Spanish and German influence.

The officers of Spanish Club for this year were: president, Nancy St. Clair; vice president, Jennifer Barr; secretary, Evon Jensen; and treasurer, Brad Barr.

German and Spanish

As interest continued to mount in the foreign language program at CHS, German students in grades 7-12 studied the language through classroom discussion, reading, tapes, and movies. The German Club, an organization of students of the language, was open to any senior high student currently enrolled in a German course or having completed one year of German instruction.

Under the direction of Herr William Johnson, the group made plans for its main activity of the year — the joint German-Spanish Banquet. The banquet, which featured a menu combining dishes from both countries, music, and entertainment, was held on February 23. The German Club members sold ice cream bars at a basketball game to supplement their funds for the banquet.

Officers of the 1967 German Club included: President, Scott Newby; Vice-President, Melvin Salmi; Secretary, Deanne Johnson; and Treasurer, Milo Rasmussen.

Future Teachers Glimpse Future

The FTA is composed of a group of senior high students interested in the teaching profession. Miss Scheidler, Advisor, and Jan Joseph, president, led the club in a successful year. Guest speakers informed the group of teaching techniques and opportunities. Members aided teachers as typists and general workers.

Activities for the year included a very successful dance, donation of a Thanksgiving basket, a spring trip to Carleton College, a bake sale and a parent-teacher coffee party.

The purpose of Future Nurses Club is to provide for its members a good understanding of what is included in nursing and other health careers. Beyond this educational purpose, FNC has been a service, social, and money-raising organization.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Bayard, meetings were held on Tuesday afternoons once a month. Films were shown at several of these meetings, and twice guest speakers were brought in. The club also toured St. Mary's Hospital and St. Luke's School of Nursing.

As a service organization, FNC members carved jack-o-lanterns for the hospital for Hallowe'en to raise $50 to send a Cloquet crippled boy to Camp Courage, and send a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family. Many of the members also served as Candystripers at the hospital. The Social Committee of FNC organized a December sleighride and party for its members, and the Ways and Means Committee planned such money-raising affairs as two bake sales and ice cream bar sales at basketball games.

Future Homemakers Conclude

Guests at Mother-Daughter tea

The 1966-67 school year was a full and rewarding one for the Future Homemakers of America. Advisors Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson and Miss Laurel Johnson led in organizing the various activities that made the year a successful one for the members.

The F.H.A. sponsored such activities as "Daddy Date Nite," a swimming and slumber party, and the Cotton Day spring style show. The members also operated the football concession stand. At one of the meetings Dr. Meyer, guest speaker, presented a talk on "Health, A Valuable Asset." The Mother-Daughter Tea wound up the year with the presentation of awards and installation of new officers.

Officers for the year were Penny Branham, president; Cherylann Boyer, vice-president; Marion Eklund, secretary-treasurer; and Julie Ann Jenski and Joan Liimatainen, historians.

Under the guidance of Miss Steinhaus, the Senior High Pep Club had their first meeting in the beginning of the school year. At that meeting the officers were chosen as follows: President, Mary Hovanec; Secretary, Penny Branham; and Treasurer, Marilyn Jensen.

The first Pep Club activity was the Football Purple and White Day, involving a bon fire at Pinehurst Park and a dance after the football game.

Also during this season, the Pep Club donated funds to the football squad for purchasing new uniforms.

The Pep Club sold Season Basketball Tickets for grades 10-12, and it also purchased swimming flags and hockey jerseys with its funds.

The highlight of the year was the sponsoring of the All-Athletic Homecoming. Several convocations were handled by members of the Club.

The final activity for Pep Club was the Basketball Parent's Night, at which the players and their parents were introduced.

Basketball, apparatus, and swimming made up a few of the widely diversified sports and activities for the twenty-five girls who participated in the Girls' Athletic Association during the 1966-67 school year. Although the club has existed in previous years, it wasn't active until last September when the club was reorganized with the help of its adviser, Miss Webb. At the organizational meeting the girls set up a schedule for the entire year which included participation in the various sports and activities. The schedule also allowed time for several activities with other schools; probably the most exciting of these events was the March 1967 basketball tournament with Barnum, Morgan Park, and Duluth Cathedral.

Regular meetings of G.A.A. were held in the gymnasium every other Friday after school. Although membership was open to all girls in grades seven through twelve, last year's members were mostly ninth and tenth graders.

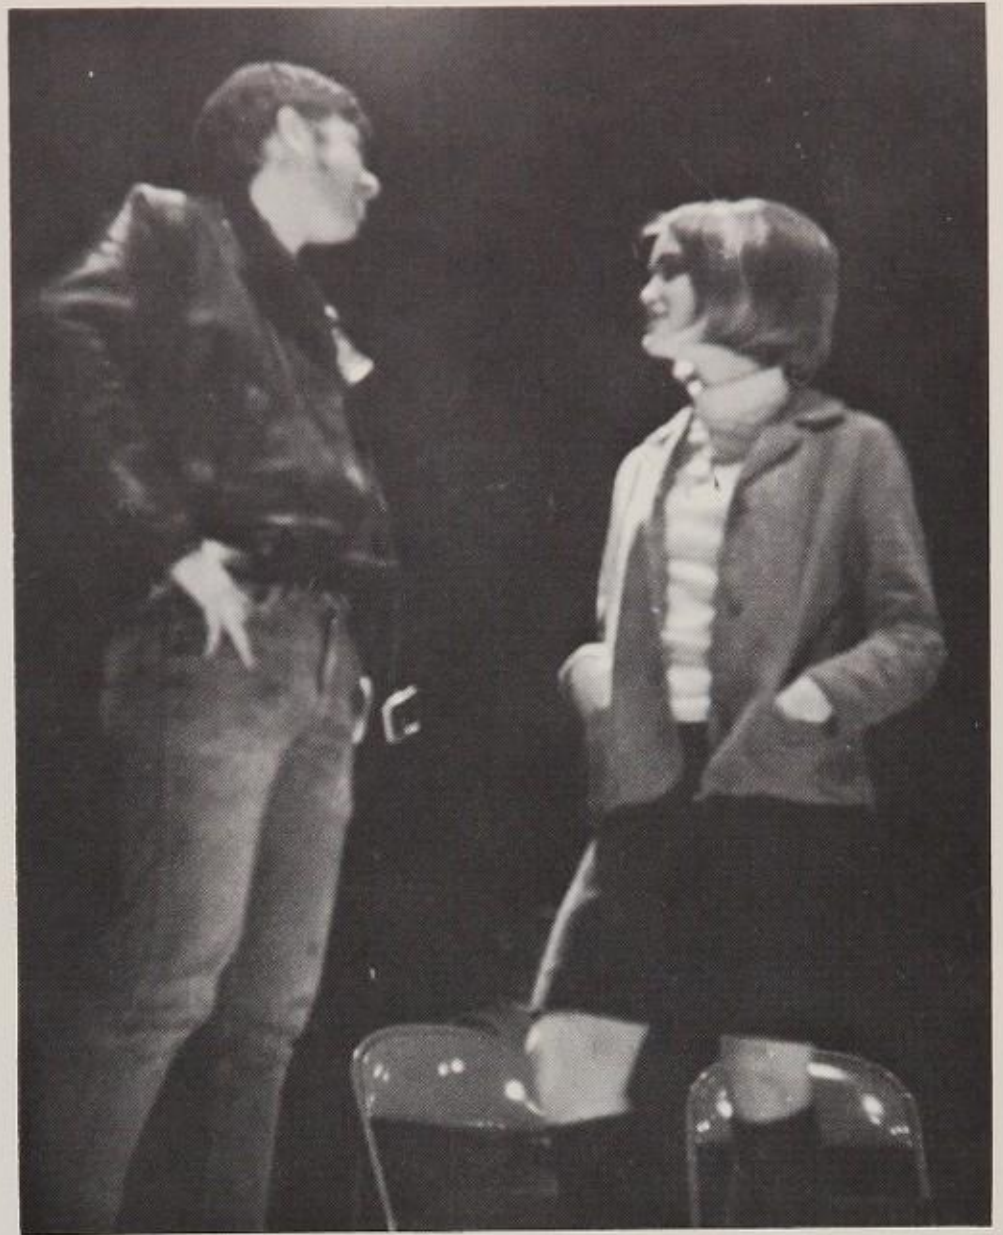

Fate Downs Rebel

The seniors were to present a three act drama on November 17 and 18, but because of unforeseen circumstances, the play was canceled.

The play, Rebel Without A Cause, unveiled the tense frustrations of a group of teenagers and their way of coping with them. The intense conflict between Jim Stark, (Steve Morrison) a new member of the gang and Buzz (Phil Bakken), the leader, heightened to a climax during the "chicken run," in which Buzz was killed. Breaking away from the gang, Jim and Judy Brown (Jessie Lange), formerly Buzz's girl friend, found for the first time real love and trust in each other. In the end, it was unveiled that the real Rebel Without a Cause was the neurotic Plato (Dale Randelin) who was searching for the help he was destined to get.

Other members of the cast were: Darrol Mason, Kathy Lindstrom, Randy Rimstead, Pam Stillwell, LeAnn Weatherson, Sue Medes, Cheryl MacConnachie, Gordy Ahlgren, Harry Bassett, Curt Gullickson, Larry Johnson, Ted Evers, Anne Gullion, Cheryl Roe, Faith Spurlin, Marilyn Jensen, Ernie Leon, Pete Polga, and Roger Salmi. Committee Chairmen were: Jacque Anderson and Linda Huseby, costumes; Cathy Weedman and Renee Rosqvold, properties; Debbie Lawrence, make-up; Anita Stahl, tickets; Kathy Walsh, advertising; and Phil Joseph, lighting. Sue Oswald was stage manager, Harry Bassett, press agent, Laurie Russ, student director, and Mr. Ronald Hillstrom, director.

Coach Guthrie breaks up battle

The hilarious situations encountered by students in their takeover of their high school set the stage for the Senior Class Play, "No More Homework." The three act comedy was presented to capacity audiences February 9 and 11. Mr. Lawrence Urbanski directed the play, assisted by student director Sue Oswell.

The student council president of Ames High, Pamela Jones (Mary Hovanec), is suddenly faced with the awesome responsibility of being principal for a day. Her loyal boyfriend Buzz Bailey (Roger Salmi) assists her in her efforts to keep the school running efficiently. But this seems to be impossible. Pamela and Buzz are faced with arguments and a few knock-out, drag-down battles between faculty members Mr. Harper (Harry Bassett) and Coach Guthrie (Steve Sjobland), a continuous feud between the two custodians Tick Tock (Dale Randelin) and Mrs. Ratchet (Kathy Lamminen), and the complaining of still other members of the staff- Mrs. Clendennig (Jan Brendiar), Miss Ogilvie (Renee Rostvold), Miss Goodin (Sue Johnson), and Miss Dill (Marianne Heine).

Members of the student body help to complicate the situation. Among the chief mischief makers are the scheming Shalimar Ames (Laurie Russ), her accomplice Tallulah Ploetz (LeAnn Weatherson), the giddy Midge Murphy (Dennie Eknes), Coach Guthrie's athletic protege Ronald Sassoon (Walt Benko) and perpetually sleeping Faversham Lightly (Terry Bloomquist).

Mr. Lundquist (Pete Polga), the understanding principal, and Elmer B. Ames (Phil Bakken), chairman of the school board, are called upon to solve an unexplained theft at the performance of "Rusty Wings" and put an end to the student takeover at Ames High School.

Mrs. McThing Bewitches

Will the real Mrs. McThing please step forward?

The junior class used their talents to capture the audience and top all previous ticket sales at C.H.S. with the magic of "Mrs. McThing," presented April 7 and 8. The play, directed by Mr. Alan Penner and student director Pam Johnson, was centered around two scenes in Larue Towers and Shantyland Pool Hall Lunchroom.

The story revolves around the witchery pulled by Mrs. McThing played by Barb Cardinal as the ugly witch and Debbie Stewart as the beautiful witch. Mrs. Larue, played by Paula Smith, will not let her precious son Howay (Laura Comeau) play with Mimi, Mrs. McThing's daughter, played by Ann Blinn. In her wrath the witch places a stick in Howay's place and moves the real Howay to the Shantyland Pool Hall. Here Howay finds himself involved in the gang mob with Poison Eddie Schellenbach (Bob Angst) as chief gangster. Soon Mrs. Larue discovers a stick in her place also and she too is recruited to work at the pool hall. A change of events takes place, however, when Mimi removes the curse of the sticks and all returns to normal or almost to normal.

"Mrs. McThing's" mystery was complimented by the marvelous sets and talented actors in the junior class. Other cast members included Cheryl Johnson, Linda Abrahamson, Claire Hoyum, Deamme Johnson, Linda Johnson, Bruce Ahlgren, Bob Ames, Melvin Salmi, Andy Sormunen, Steve Valliant, Kathy Sarette, Brad Angell, and Craig Salo. The backstage crew also worked hard to make the play a huge success. Committee Chairmen include: Jacob Burggraff and Mike Miles, set; Monica Carle, make-up; LeAnn Rasmussen, costumes; Gail Brummer and Milo Rasmussen, sound; Margie Korpi, programs; Jim Gerard, properties; Marcia Riihiluoma, publicity; and Tom Kubat, lighting. Prompters were Beryl Raun, Marion Eklund, and Beverly Bruno.

Speech Students Delight

Two princesses

To further their study of drama, Mr. Penner's speech classes presented three plays on May 18. For two weeks students in each of the speech classes worked on their production as actors, directors, or stage hands. The plays, based on fairytales, were then presented to grade school students.

The second hour's production, "The Dancing Princess," revolved around the attempts of four beautiful princesses to meet the young princes that their father had prohibited them from marrying. Faith Spurlin and Phil Joseph served as directors.

"Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" was fifth hour's contribution to the speech class plays. The fairytale, directed by Laurie Russ and Harry Bassett, was concerned with the hero, Aladin, and the heroine, Adora, in their efforts to prevent the cruel magician from stealing their magic lamp.

The sixth hour class presented "An Ingenue of the Sierras," a melodrama involving a gold shipment robbery and an elopement. Cheryl MacConnachie and Ted Evers were directors.

Cloquet Represented at State Speech Contest

Paula and her coach admire her award.

The 1966-67 extracurricular speech season began with a pre-seasonal meet at Central High School on December 10. This was followed by the Cloquet Invitational Speech Meet held on January 14. Every other Saturday, meets were held at various schools including UMD, Denfeld, and Morgan Park. At the NFL Regional Speech Meet held on March 3 and 4, Paula Smith won first place honors in the humorous interpretation division. At the International Falls Meet, Becky Nelson captured first place again in the humorous division. The District Meet was held at Duluth East on April 8. Cloquet placed 12th out of 14 participants in the final round to win fourth place. Paula Smith progressed from this meet to the Region 7 meet, and then to the last meet for the year - the State Speech Meet held at Hamline University on April 22.

The six areas in which the extra-curricular speech students can participate are humorous interpretation, serious interpretation, extemporaneous reading, discussion, storytelling, and non-original oratory. Coaches for the past season were Mr. Abalan and Mr. Hillstrom.

Nine Senior Boys Selected by Rotarians

During the course of the school year, a selection committee comprised of Mr. Chinnock and Mr. Wolner chose nine outstanding senior boys, who each attend four weekly Rotary Club meetings. It is a great privilege to be one of the nine.

At the meeting held every Tuesday of the month, the Junior Rotarians are given the opportunity to learn the purpose and duties of this organization. During the fourth and final meeting, each member is required to give a short speech on the experience he has gained while attending Rotary meetings. Highlighting the end of the year is when the boys conduct a meeting themselves and sponsor a program to entertain the Rotarians.

AFFIRMATIVE - Monica Carle

Both the Affirmative and the Negative A-squad debate teams received equal records with this year's debate topic: Resolved: "that the foreign aid policy of the United States be limited to non-totalitarian countries." The Affirmative team consisted of Marcia Riihiluoma and Monica Carle, with Cathy Lewis as alternate; and the Negative team consisted of Margie Korpi and Lyndin Foss, with Kevin Lovejoy and Bob Mayne as alternates.

Despite the over-all record of 30 wins and 42 losses, suffered at such places as Duluth Central, Denfeld, St. Cloud State College, Hopkins, Gustavus Adolphus, Main Campus, and UMD, the debaters took fifth place in the N.F.L. Regional in Duluth.

Since all debaters are returning, they are hoping that the experience will give them a better season next year.

Mr. Penner and Mr. Kranz were this year's debate coaches.

Soloists

After spending weeks to overcome the boundaries laid down by human endurance, the Synchronized Swimming Team put on their production — Sports Splashtacular. The hard work in planning routines, learning the moves and making the decorations was a small price to pay for the pleasure derived from the actual performance.

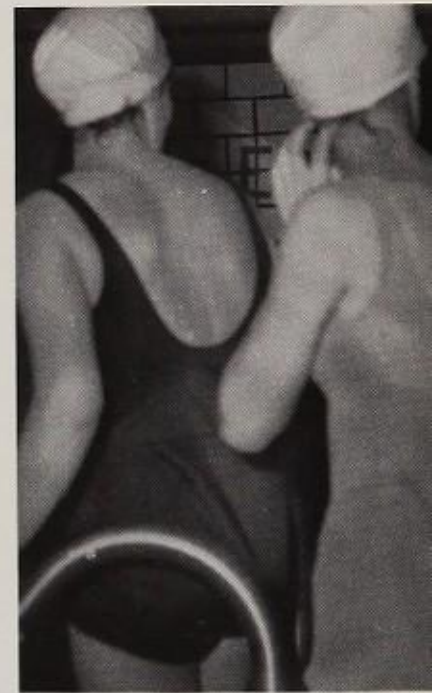

This year the group accented their show with red sails, bows and human arrows, black and red tights, and a formal candlelight procession to add variety for their audience. Under the guidance of Miss Steinhaus, the girls, whose only requirement is that they know how to swim well, were able to participate in a unique experience offered by our school.

Twenty-Seven Seniors Gain Practical

We all know KATHY MELL as the energetic cheerleader. Some of us have not, however, had the opportunity to learn to know her as a secretary. Her training station this year has been in the office of Mr. Chin-nock, the vocational coordinator for this program.

Twenty-seven seniors of the class of 1967 made up the Vocational Training Program this year. Fifteen were girls receiving training in office occupations, and twelve were boys in skilled trades. Officers of the Vocational Club were June Palm — President, Le-Roy Sparring — Vice-President, and Kathy Mell — Secretary-Treasurer. The high point of the year was the employer-employee banquet held at Gillette's Supper Club on May 10. Parents, teachers, employers, and trainers were the guests of the students.

RUTH GIST's secretarial training this year has largely been in the Traffic Office of the Wood Conversion Company. This picture shows her taking dictation from Mr. Joe Guard, manager of that department.

One operation which a maintenance electrician performs is that of electric motor winding. This picture shows KEITH JUTILA with his trainer, Mr. Sulo Minkkinen, Diamond Match Company. They are checking a three-phase 440-volt electric motor which Keith has wound.

JERRY DECAIGNY is this year's trainee at the Northwest Paper Company's Electric Shop. One phase of Jerry's training requires three to four weeks' assignment to the hydro-electric station operator. Mr. George Johnson is Jerry's trainer for this portion of his program.

Experience Through Training Program

PEGGY SMITH's trainer this year is Mr. Henry Melancon, Director of Audio-Visual Aids for the Cloquet school system. As his secretary she has carried out such tasks as correspondence, preparing film schedules, ordering, cataloguing, etc.

JOYCE ROY's training has been in the office of the Independent Insurance Agency, which is a merger of Reliable and Dupont-Johnson. She began the year in the Dupont-Johnson office and is shown with her "boss", Mr. Paul Dupont.

PAUL JOHNSON's occupational training has been as a machinist in The Northwest Paper Company's Machine Shop. Supervising Paul at a machine lathe is Mr. Herman Trettel.

Receptionist and Switchboard Operator are two jobs which almost always are combined. CAROL WAPPES is learning this job at The Northwest Paper Company mill under the supervision of Miss Pat Skull.

The Maintenance Electric Shop at the Wood Conversion Company has been JIM JOHNSON's training station. His training requires that he be instructed in the maintenance of electrical control equipment throughout the whole plant as well as that in the electric shop. The foreman, Mr. Walter Berset, is explaining one of these relay panels to Jim.

Afternoon Jobs Prepare Trainees

One of the activities at which LINDA ESALA has spent a lot of her time as trainee at the Raiter Clinic is that of filing. This picture shows Linda with a large group of medical records which Mrs. Fay Newton, Office Manager, has just given her.

TOM JOHANSEN is studying the occupation of Auto Partsman as we see him with Mr. Morton Oswald, Oswald Motor Company. An auto partsman must understand business principles as well as the field of auto mechanics.

MARY CARRIER's chief activities this year in the office of the Diamond Match Company have been in the area of book-keeping and office clerical work. Miss Hildur Vestin is supervising Mary on entries to be made in a large ledger.

DARRELL DANIELSON's assignment as a trainee has been with the Thompson Electric Company. Shown with Darrell is Mr. William Schneider, formerly the owner of the company. Darrell's training has been electrical appliance repair.

The teletype is an illustration of a piece of equipment which LINDA KANTONEN has had the opportunity to use as a stenographic trainee in the Sales Office at The Northwest Paper Company. Mr. Kendall Evenson is dictating a message to her as she sends it directly to one of their branch sales offices.

GREG MANGAN plans to enter college as an engineering student. He has had ample opportunity this year to become well acquainted with the duties of an engineer, because, as this picture points out, he is the drafting trainee in the Engineering Department of the Wood Conversion Company. His supervisor is Mr. Bernard Myking.

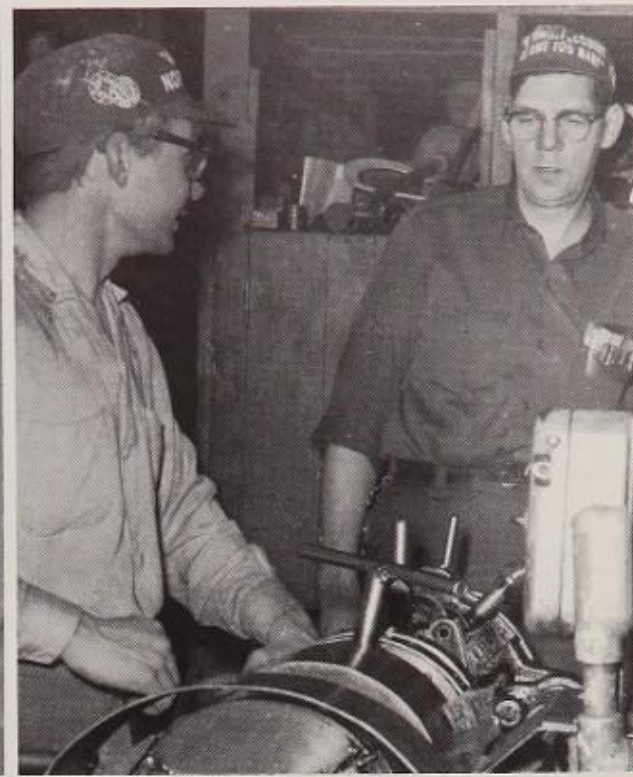

For Their Future Vocations

RICK SATHER's training this year has been welding. His shop is the Welding Shop at The Northwest Paper Company. His on-the-job instructor shown with him is Mr. Elmer Liimatainen, assistant foreman.

JOANN JURAN's office is in The Northwest Paper Company's Purchasing Department, where she is seen with her trainer, Mr. Dave Dinham. It appears that they are sorting invoices for purchases. All of the purchasing for the company is done through this office.

The Pipe Shop at The Northwest Paper Company has this year been MIKE FISH's training station. The man shown with Mike is assistant foreman Mr. Lester Marshall, under whom Mike has worked all year.

The Best Oil Company is the office where SHARON RIEL has worked this year. One of the tasks which she has learned is the operation of a bookkeeping machine under the supervision of Mrs. Pat Halvorson.

DAN BLESENER is the trainee this year in The Northwest Paper Company's Offset Print Shop. Dean Koski, the Assistant Supervisor of this department, was the trainee in the class of 1959.

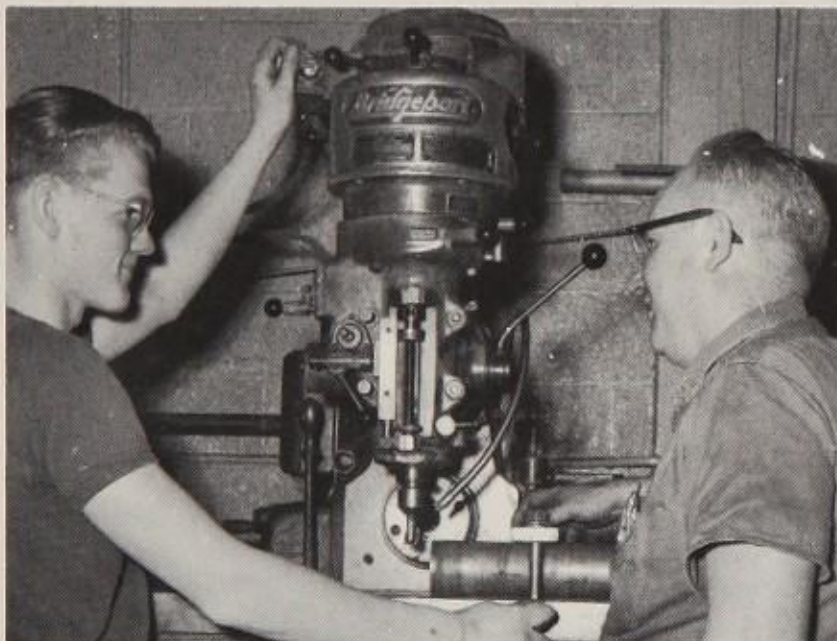

NANCY GAMACHE has had some experience in The Northwest Paper Company's Scheduling Department with computers. This picture shows her with Mrs. Evelyn Breitbarth, learning the operation of the keyboard of the machine which will write orders for production of paper.

Afternoons Spent "On The Job"

Here again is an example of a student being trained by a former student. CAROLYN WARNER on the left is this year's student being trained by Miss Dorothy Berg on the right, last year's student in the office of Kortie Sons' Gamble Store.

The Wood Conversion Company's Machine Shop has been LEROY SPARRING'S assigned training station this year. He has been responsible to the man he is shown with, Mr. Aubrey Danielson, assistant foreman.

JUNE PALM is the president of the Vocational Training Club. She is one of the stenographic trainees this year assigned to the Wood Conversion Company. She and Mr. Louis Thomas, Supervisor of Accounting, are proofreading a tabulation of figures.

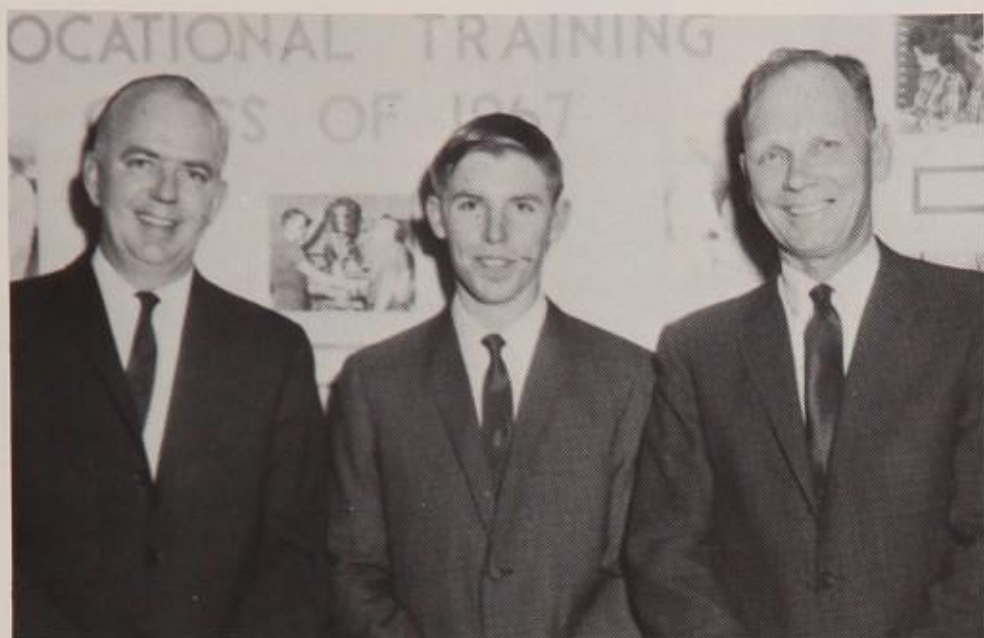

KAREN CHRISTENSEN is the trainee in the Associated Loan Company office. She and the manager, Mr. James Beattie, are checking a credit file. This training station has made it possible for Karen to come in contact with the public and get valuable experience in dealing with people.

JOE TASKY has been the trainee this year in the Wood Conversion Company's Sheet Metal Shop. Mr. Charles Annis, foreman, is instructing Joe in the operation of the Pullmax machine, which is used to cut, form, shape, hem, etc., heavy sheet metal.

ATHLETICS

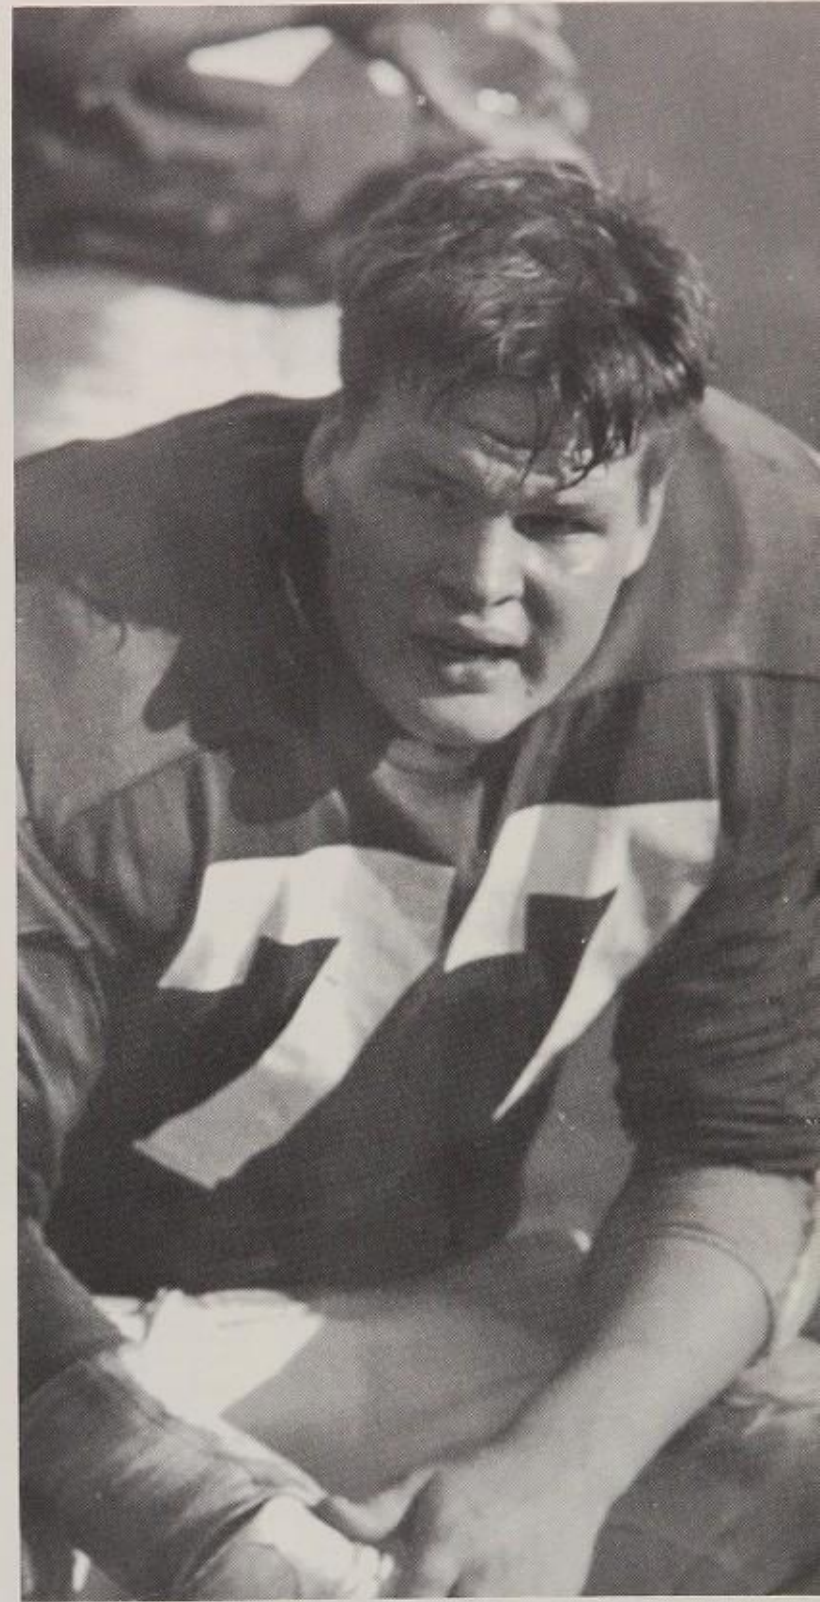

Jacks Start Strong

The Cloquet Lumberjacks experienced an overall strong season as represented by their 5-4 record. After overpowering their first five opponents with overwhelming victories, the Jacks' winning streak was broken when defeat hit the team late in the season.

In the opener, the Jacks stormed past the Hermantown Hawks for a 56-7 victory. For the second game, the team invaded Ordean Field when they trounced the Duluth East Greyhounds beating them 42-20. The Jacks then marched on to their third straight victory by defeating Proctor 40-0. Keeping the ball rolling, the Jacks went on to beat Silver Bay and Grand Marais.

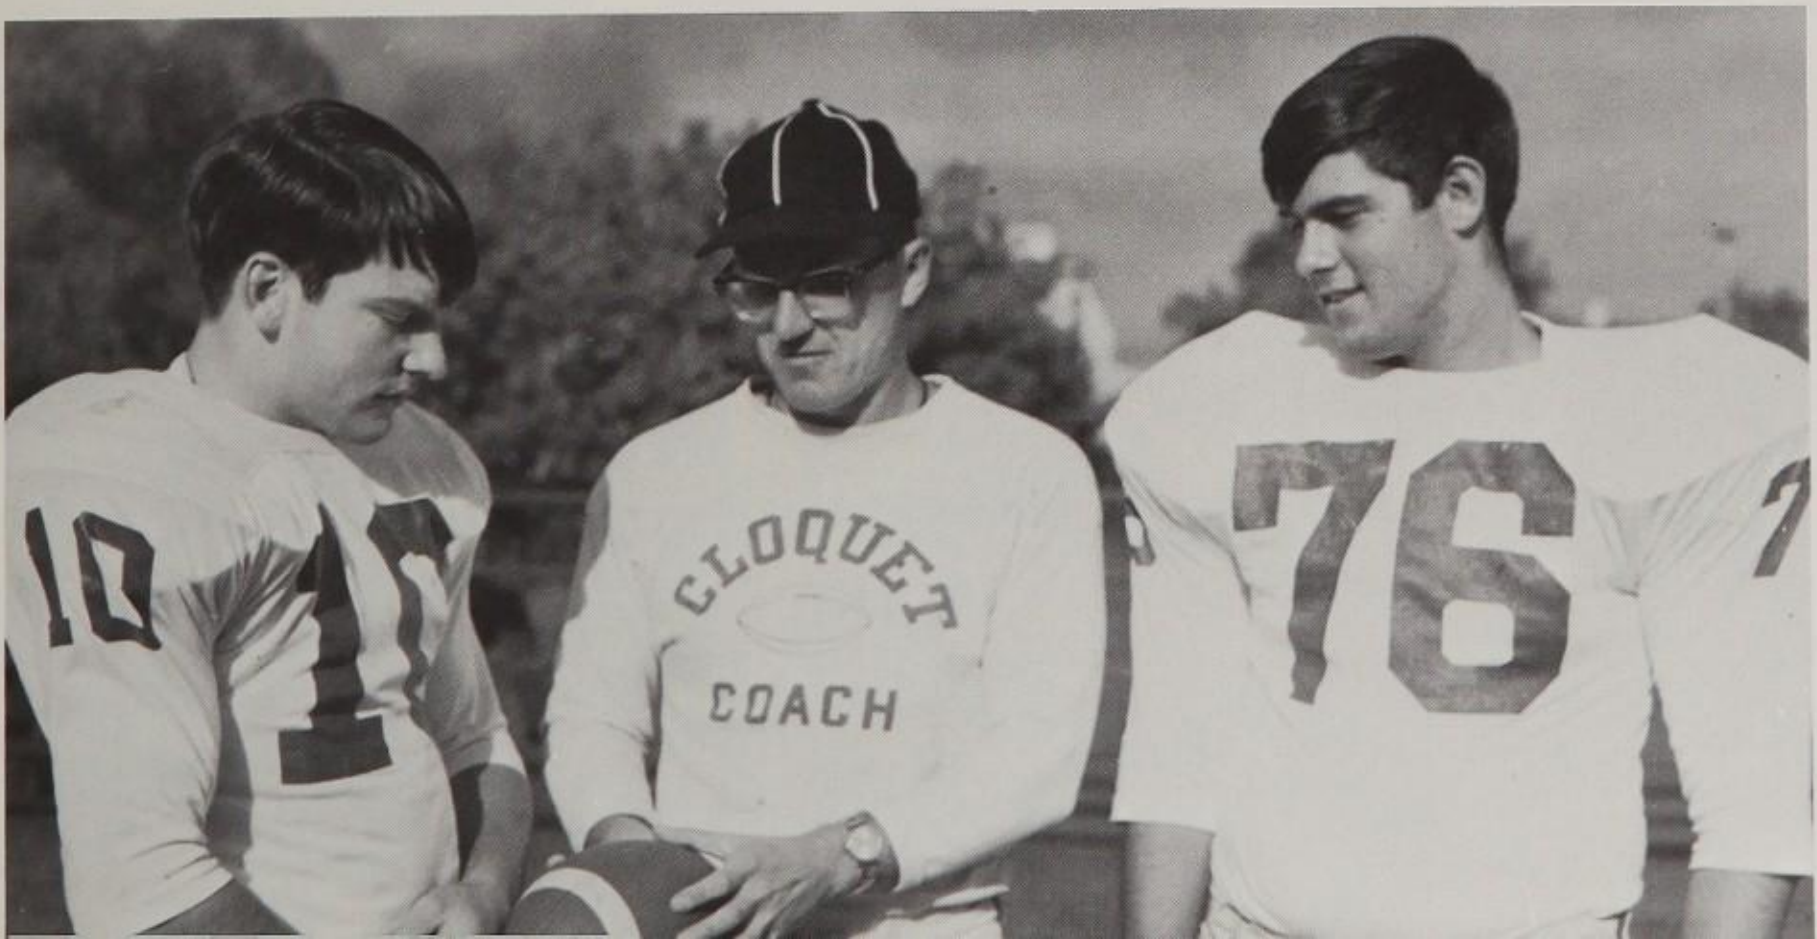

Then defeat hit the squad. Once rated first in the tri-state and fourth in the state, the Jacks were dropped off both ratings by the end of the season. The first upset went to Two Harbors when the Agates' surprisingly strong defense led them to a 14-7 victory. The next two consecutive defeats went to Morgan Park 18-7 and Denfeld 27-14. The Aitkin game was actually won by the Jacks by a score of 41-0, but because of ineligibility declared of some of the players, the game was forfeited to the Aitkin Gobblers.

Craig Pollard broke the school record for number of points scored for one season. Craig scored 105 points, beating the record which had been set by Mike Forrest, and making himself the top scorer in the tri-state area. Two other players on the squad, Steve Sjoblad and Gordy Ahlgren were in the top ten scoring group.

Facing a rough season, the Cross Country team had to run hard to keep up with their powerful opponents. Led by Coach Norman Sprenger and Captain Jim Minkkinen, the team ended the season with a record of 16 wins. Highlighting the '66 season was the Swain Invitational meet where the sophomore team members placed eighth out of eighteen. The team's best runner for the year proved to be Chet Lake, who finished among the top runners in a number of meets.

Kittens and Mittens

Under the leadership of coach Mr. Bourdeau and captain Bruce Plante, this year's hockey team was the best in Cloquet history. Compiling a record of 13-9-1, good enough for 3rd place, the team was characterized by teamwork, spirit, the desire to win, and hard work.

With all teams being just about equal, Cloquet lost games to Denfeld, Morgan Park, East, and Cathedral. They rebounded to defeat Central, Two Harbors, Proctor, Hermantown, Silver Bay, Superior, and Aurora. The lone tie was with Superior. Cloquet gained revenge against Morgan Park in the districts by defeating them 1-0, which put them into the regional tournaments. After losing to Duluth East in the semi-finals of the district tournament, Cloquet lost a heartbreaking contest for 3rd place to Denfeld by the score of 2-1. In the first game of the regional tournament, the Jacks fell to Greenway, 4-1.

In the nets for the third year in a row was all-conference goalie Bruce Plante, but the heart of the defense was Bruce Norrgard, the most consistent player of the team. Other defensemen were Dave Wilson and Rick Sather. Gordy Ahlgren played both defense and forward, doing a good job at both. The scoring was led by Andy Sormunen, Bob Ames, and Bruce Ahlgren. With only five boys graduating, the team looks very strong for next year.

Coach Ahlbrecht explains battle strategy to captain Mason

This year the CHS swimming team enjoyed its best season in swimming history. Under the leadership of a new coach, Mr. Lee Ahlbrecht, Cloquet swam to an 11-3 record, capturing second in the district tournament.

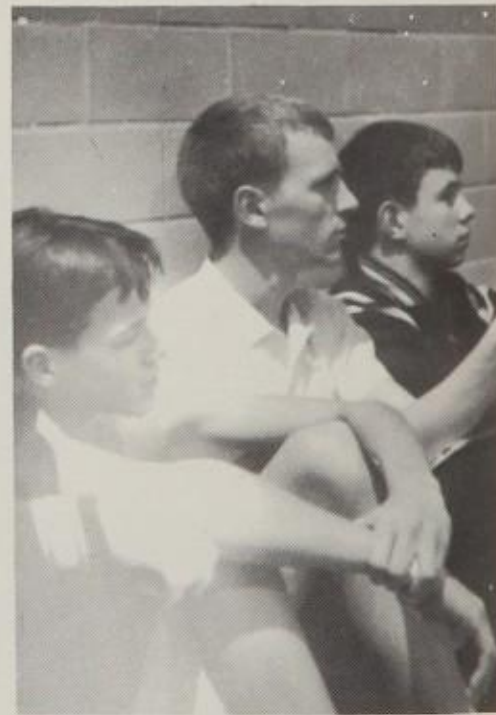

Cloquet sent eight members of the team to the State tournament this year. Members were Seniors, Jamie Thomson in diving, Stu Boyer in the 50 yard freestyle and 200 medley relay, Darrol Mason in diving and the 100 yard breaststroke; Juniors, Rick Reed in the 200 yard and 400 yard freestyles, Rick Wilkinson in the 100 yard backstroke and 200 yard medley relay; Sophomore Steve Johnson in the relay; Freshmen Dave Sarazin in the relay; and Senior manager, Paul Beltt.

Records fell fast during the year and kept falling all season. Records were broken by Darrol Mason, Rick Wilkinson, Rick Reed, and the 200 yard relay team made up of Rick Wilkinson, Dave Sarazin, Steve Johnson, and Stu Boyer.

Next year the team is a big threat to the district title. With the continued improvement of the young swimmers, the team is confident of a successful future.

Ski Trails Friendly to

Jumping Squad

The CHS ski team schussed down the trails to retain the Minnesota State Prep Ski Crown. Under the capable leadership of Coach Nowak and Mr. Brian Johnson, they have successfully defended this proud title for the last four of five years.

The district championship held at Chester Bowl and Mont du Lac, was again obtained by the Cloquet skiers. Rick Nelson flew to first place in jumping, and Larry Tuomi raced to first in cross-country, with Steve Rosen taking a close second.

The state meet, which was held in the same locality, concluded with the Cloquet Jacks recapturing the state title. Rick Nelson retained the distinction of being the State Jumping Champion with a 104 foot leap and top style points.

Cloquet qualified three boys to represent the Mid-west in the national championships held in Duluth: Rick Nelson, Larry Tuomi, and Steve Rosen. Although the team will be losing three senior lettermen — Rick Nelson, Mark Rosen, and Tim Schilling — the prospects are still bright for the future.

Co-captain Mike and Coach Trochil

With a 10-9 record of wins and losses, the Cloquet High School Basketball team placed third in Big Ten competition this year. At the district competition, Cloquet lost to Carlton in the first game.

Coaches Ben Trochil and Bob Gerlach led the Jacks to many outstanding games. Particularly remembered are the Silver Bay and Morgan Park games where Cloquet won by wide margins.

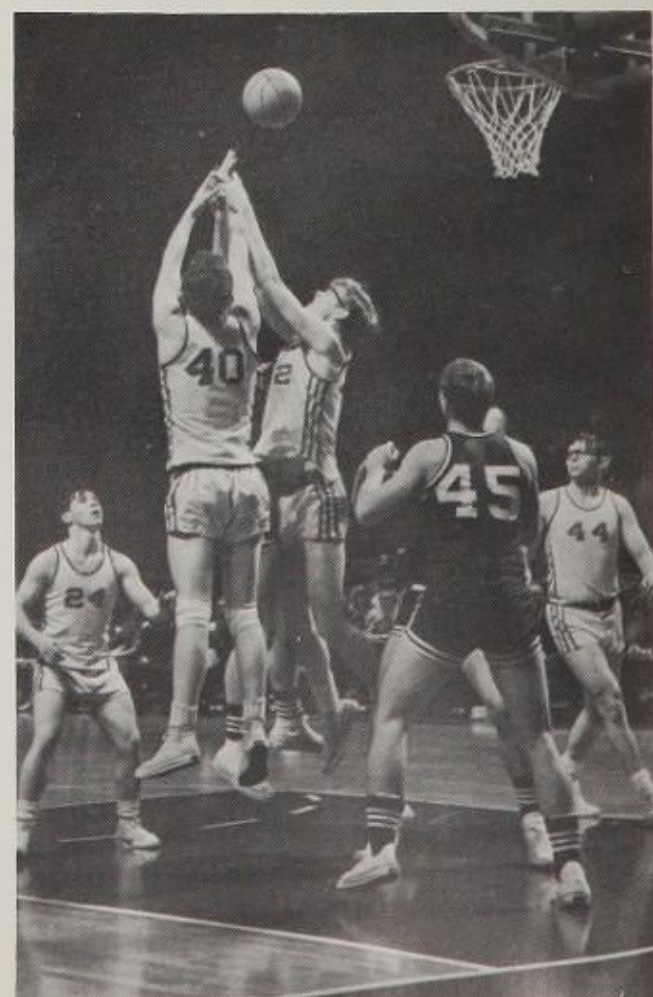

Co-captains Mike Hyland and Joe Karluak were the only two seniors on this year's team. Mike held the highest rebound score and scoring average for the team. He caught a total of 76 rebounds and averaged 13.9 points a game. His total for the year was 265 points. Mickey Hunter, a junior, followed Hyland in the scoring average with 9.9 points per game.

With so many juniors and sophomores receiving experience this year, Cloquet can look forward to fine basketball teams in the future.

Cheerleaders Add Pep and

Braving the mud

The CHS cheerleaders proudly represented the student body in supporting athletic competition at its best. Leading the student body in challenging, tongue-twisting cheers and good sportsmanship at pepfests, games, and tournaments, supporters echoed back with spirit and optimism. Marianne Heine, Darlene Edman, Kathy Lindstrom, Kathy Mell, and Linda Ekholm, under the direction of Miss Steinhaus, displayed outstanding athletic coordination, creativeness, and contagious friendliness. Marianne held the crowd in awe as she landed "feet up" on her back handspring. Unfortunately, the cheerleaders proved too ambitious for their own good, or at least for the good of their uniforms. Ripped bermudas and torn culottes were a frequent (and humorous) sight. Shaking their new purple and white pompons, the cheerleaders boosted the football, basketball, hockey, and swimming teams to glorious victories. Behind every victory there is a cheerleader. (Behind every defeat there is a cheerleader.)

Despite all their shining qualities, the cheerleaders did have a little competition. Michelle Hyland, Stephanie Strand, Daphne McShane, Carol Niemi, and Josephine Karulak almost got their feet off the floor for a hearty pepfest cheer. But until they fully master the forward jump, they'd better stick to the game — basketball?

Homecoming '67

Homecoming 1967 began on Wednesday, February 8 with the traditional Lumberjack Day held at Cloquet High School. This day included the announcement of the twenty-four candidates at an afternoon convocation. Memorable stories of the candidates' childhood were told by the master and mistress of ceremonies, Harold Bassett and Anne Gullion. In keeping with the Lumberjack theme, a pancake eating contest and log rolling race were held for the audience's entertainment.

Amid spontaneous applause and happy tears, this year's All Athletic Homecoming royalty, Queen Marianne Heine and King Tim Botsford were announced at the convocation on Friday, February 10.

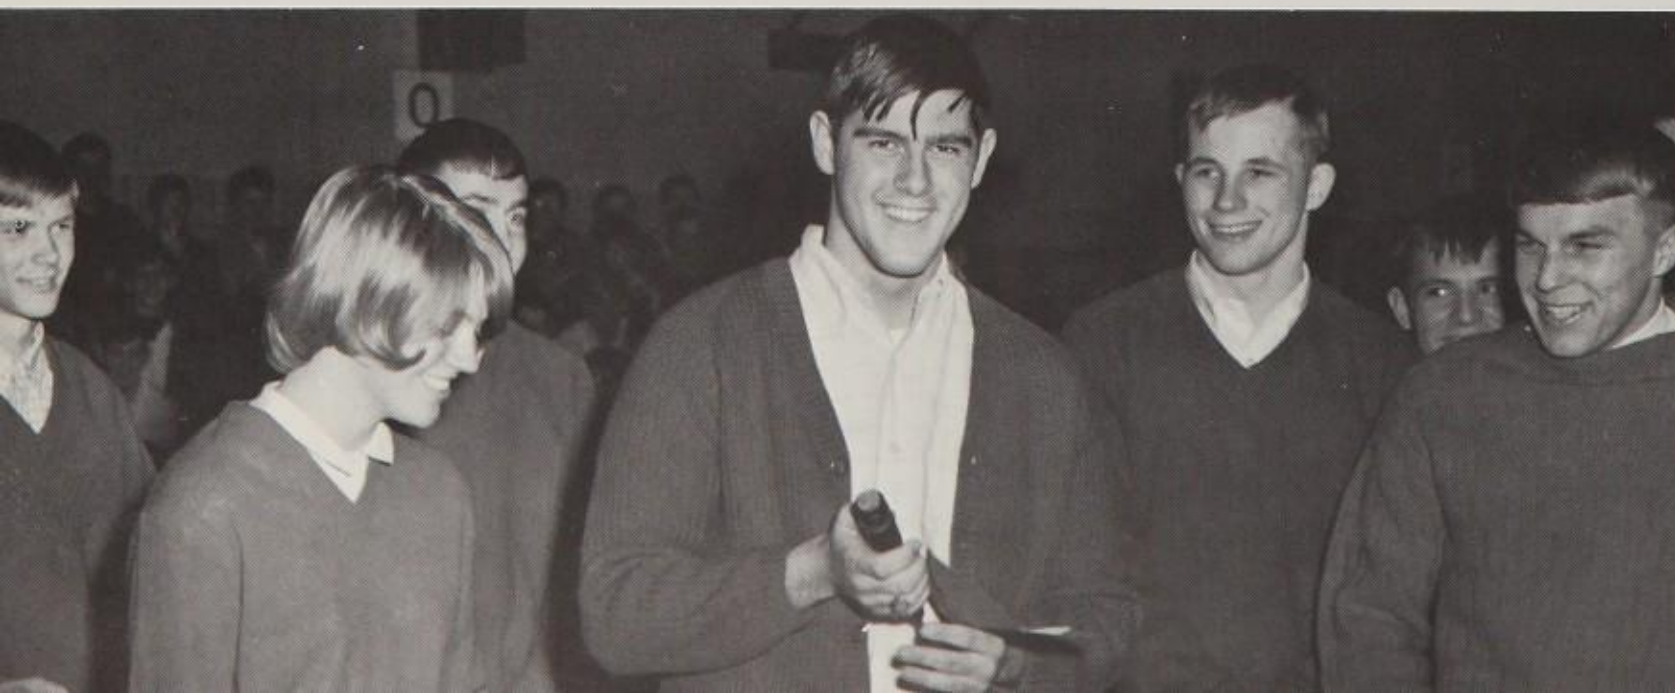

The coronation Friday evening highlighted the week's activities. As the band played "March of the Brave," last year's royalty, Bonnie Meisner and Mike Fortune, led the procession to the throne. Crown bearers Polly Skoglund and Ricky Pappas proceeded the 22 attendants. The music stopped, the announcement was made, and Queen Marianne and King Tim entered the gym to a standing ovation as "March of the Brave" filled the gym once again. The new king and queen were crowned and then led everyone in singing the school hymn. The royalty and attendants descended the throne and joined everyone in cheering for the Lumberjack team. Immediately following the game, the annual Homecoming dance was held in the cafeteria.

The magic of the evening is over, but the memories shall live long in the hearts of everyone as Homecoming '67.

The Cloquet Girls' Rifle Team, under the coaching of Mr. Stapleton, finished the season with two wins against Virginia and Superior and one loss. They took first place in Regionals held in Sandstone and second and fourth place in the State meet.

This year's record breakers are Jane Bottila who tied the prone record three times with a 99, and set a new sitting record of 97. Erlana Skarp, a junior, set a new off-hand record of 85, a four position record of 361, and a new three position seasonal average of 346.8.

Letter winners are Captain Jane Bottila, Erlana Skarp, Margaret Minogue, Sue Anderson, Margi Korpi, and Debbie Stewart.

Boys' Rifle Team Second in State

The Cloquet boys' rifle team, under the coaching of Mr. Stapleton, had another fine year with four wins and one loss. In the regional match held at Sandstone, the team placed an unimpressive third. However, in the state match, held in Minneapolis on April 9, the team placed second and fifth. The second place finish is the highest any boys' team has placed in the rugged competition of the state meet.

Letter winners for this year are senior captains LeRoy Sparring, Jim Price, and Ken Suominen. The only junior to letter was Brad Chabot.

Individual honors went to Jim Price and Ken Suominen who tied with season averages of 354.

Good pitching and weak hitting tell the story of a frustrating season for the Lumberjack baseball team. Four of the eight losses were by one run and two of the others by two run margins. A few timely hits would have won many games.

Mike Hyland and Jim Minkkinen pitched well, and other seniors provided good support. Bruce Plante at first, lead the hitters; Ron Pohjola and Dean Franz played steady ball in the field.

After winning their first game in the district, the Jacks fell to Morgan Park 3-0.

With seven lettermen returning, prospects for a good season next year are bright.

Regional Competition Climaxes Track Season

Cloquet had a rough season this year. Hampered by snow and bad weather, Cloquet put two boys in the Region track meet. Darrol Niemi qualified by placing 5th place in the District meet in discus, while Royal Prevost placed 3rd in the District pole vaulting. Also in District competition, the 880 yard relay team placed 2nd, and the mile relay team placed 3rd. Top point winners for the season were Rick Reed with 160 points, Tom Tucker with 130 points, and Craig Hawkins with 124 points.

Of 15 lettermen on the team this year, 12 will be returning. Since such a large part of the team was underclassmen, the future looks promising.

Golf Team Captures Virginia Title

Steady, Tim

The golf team, under the coaching of Mr. Gerlach and captain Jim Arbuckle, had another successful season with a record of 32-10-1. They placed fifth in the District, but secured a first place in the Virginia Invitational.

Captain Jim Arbuckle, with strong support from veterans Mark Rosen, Tom Lavan, and Denny Nelson, captured medalist honors. Seniors Dan Blesner and Mark Rosen qualified for the Region 7 tournament.

With team members Denny Nelson, Tom Lavan, and Steve Rosen returning, plus up and comers like Scott Smith, Dan Rosen, and Dave Rosen, the team's outlook for next year is very good.

Tennis Season Spells Success

The CHS tennis team had a most successful season — successful in the aspect that it suffered no losses. The season was climaxed with a record of 2 wins, 3 ties, and 1 rain out.

The district finals at Proctor were the time and place of revelation. The girls swept through taking all honors and medals. Pamela Stillwell, defending champion, took first place in the single's division. Barb Maslowski and Char Fortune followed a winning streak and also came out first in the district in doubles. With a total of 23 points from the girl's side, and 2 from the boys, the Cloquet tennis team placed 2nd in the district with a grand total of 25 points to East's 30.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Holiday Dance Adds Sparkle to Christmas Sno-Ball

The sparkling spirit of the Christmas season filled the Washington school gym on December 27 when the senior girls sponsored the annual Sno-Ball. Corsages of red roses on White Pine sprigs were given to the junior and senior girls as they and their dates entered into a Yule-tide atmosphere of Christmas trees, wreaths, and snowflakes.

Rome Adventure Creates

Climaxing the year's activities was the annual Junior-Senior Prom held on May 29. Having chosen "Rome Adventure" for their theme, the junior class captured an Italian atmosphere through the use of canals, fruit markets, Roman ruins, and water fountains.

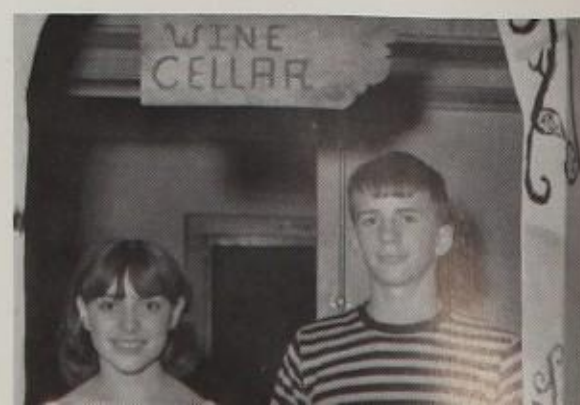

Del Prevost, Junior class president, was the general chairman. Denny Nelson and Susanne Johnson were co-chairmen of the decorations committee. The program committee, headed by Sue Mylander, put on a skit consisting of three Roman wives bragging about their husbands. Andy Sormanen displayed his talents on the accordion as he portrayed a strolling minstrel. One hundred and sixty-nine couples danced to the live music of the Vagabonds.

Swinging Psychedelic with

The 1967 Post Prom was particularly unique in that its decorations, the responsibility of the senior class and of Jessie Lange, decorations chairman, were particularly creative and original. They featured modern art with the emphasis on wild paintings and flashing lights — thus the theme, "Psychedelic."

As has been the tradition, the 1967 post prom was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. They supplied their usual but delicious banquet at 12:30 A.M. and closing breakfast at 5:00 A.M. An exciting band from Bemidji, the Brass, entertained the group except for the delightful interval during which Harry King Cole provided his very thrilling comedy and impersonations.

Kid Day A Real Riot

Comedy, costumes, and candy are Kid Day at CHS. This year, the program featured Doots and Dean, and included Cloquet versions of Red Riding Hood and Zorba the Greek, and a satire on our teachers. Kathy Walsh, yearbook editor, dedicated the White Pine to Palmer Peterson, a happy choice.

Baccalaureate

The most solemn of Commencement activities, Baccalaureate, was held Sunday, May 28. Seniors were challenged by Rev. Edwin Sanford, whose Baccalaureate message was, "What Is Success?". His sermon contained a plea for individuality. Special music was provided by the Senior Girls' Chorus and Faith Spurlin, soprano soloist, who was accompanied by Barb Laine. Mr. Belvin Heicie played the processional and recessional.

Senior Stars Shine at

As a conclusion to the senior year, the senior banquet was held in the Hotel Duluth ballroom on May 29. The theme was CHS Academy Awards. Following a delicious buffet dinner, Marianne Heine, class president and mistress of ceremonies, opened the program and introduced the six students representing the Cloquet public schools; Mark Rosen, Leach; Ron Pohjala, Garfield; June Palm, Jefferson; and Cheryl Roe, Washington; Phil Joseph, the parochial school; and Kathy Mell for the Scanlon School. The school administrators spoke, and musical entertainment was provided by Dean and Doots who sang and played the guitar and harmonica. The next speakers revived memories from high school. Pam Stillwell spoke on junior high, Mary Hovanec on 10th and 11th grade, and Kathy Laminen on the senior year.

P.K. Peterson entertained the audience by talking about "squirrely buggers," and physics? Concluding the program were the Senior Singers. They presented a melody of memories going back through the high school years.

This was indeed a delightful closing to a wonderful senior year.

In Memoriam

The staff of the 1967 White Pine has set aside this page in affectionate memory of Chris Olson, whose untimely death saddened our whole school the spring of our junior year.

Chris was a warm, happy boy who would rather play than study. His loss leaves a gap in our class and our hearts.

This has been a year for swingers. As these three and most of you know, swinging is a succession of ups and downs. We have had our highs and lows during the school year just past. For me and my faulty memory, this year cannot be duplicated by any regular oscillation on a swing; for me the highs outnumber, outweigh, and outlast the lows.

Be happy. The sun will shine in your back door some day.
